Hi Annie,

Thank you again so much for coming to Quincy to testify the other day in the [REDACTED] matter. It was a pleasure for me and the other folks in my office to meet you.

The jury deadlocked yesterday; As best I can tell from the jurors' questions, the issue was whether the defendant knew that the item she was hiding was actually cocaine. Obviously, the identity of the drugs was not meaningfully disputed after you testified!

The case has been set for a new trial on March 5, 2012. I am attaching subpoenas for both you and for that date (I will also be sending hard copies by mail). I will touch base a week or so before the March 5 trial date. In light of the trial this week, the defense attorney may well stipulate the identity of the drugs.

If we do need somebody to testify on March 5, Annie, I understand that your upcoming change in responsibilities may make it a challenge to schedule this. Accordingly, it may be best for Kate to plan to be available that day.

Again, thank you both for working with us on this, and best wishes for a lovely holiday!

Hi,

On call is fine with me. I can be reached at the number below.

If your case does go forward, I would need to leave the courthouse by 3 pm on Wed due to prior commitments. If needed I can be available on Thursday AM.

Sorry for the inconvenience.

Hi Annie and Kate,

I'm writing to touch base regarding Commonwealth v. [REDACTED] a matter that is set for trial tomorrow in Quincy District Court. You both analyzed the specimen at issue in this case, Lab No. [REDACTED]

Can you both please confirm that you will be available on call tomorrow if the case proceeds to trial? I would also be grateful for a phone number that I can use to reach you tomorrow if necessary.

Please let me know if you need anything further from me at this time. Best regards,

Eric
